Jupiter Joe Works a Mile in 1:42 and Other Horse Show Speed at Shorter Distances-James R. Keene Recovers and Proceeds to Castleton.

Lexington, Ky., September 13.—The most impressive move of this morning at the Kentucky Association track was Jupiter Joe's mile in 1:42. Colonel Applegate and his partner. W. G. Yanke, were both at the track to see the work and were well satisfied with it. Ocean Bound cantered five-eighths in 1:04, Star River worked a half in 51\(\frac{3}{2}\), Billy Bodemer five-eighths in 1:02, Peter Pender three-quarters in 1:14\(\frac{3}{2}\), Melisande three-quarters in 1:16\(\frac{3}{2}\) and Sigo three-quarters in 1:17. The strings of F. A. Forsythe and Herman Brandt, numbering twenty head, and in-quarters in 1:17. The strings of F. A. Forsythe and Herman Brandt, numbering twenty head, and including Shooting Spray, Colston, Twilight Queen and Dorante, arrived from Saratoga this morning.

James R. Keene has recovered sufficiently to leave the Good Samaritan Hospital for his Castleton Farm. He drove out to his magnificent breeding establishment on the Ironworks road five miles from Lexington in company with his brother-in-law, Maj. Foxhall A. Daingerfield, this morning and will remain there until he recovers his strength sufficiently to return to New York. Dr. Scott says that Mr. Keene has now no congestion of the lungs, that his temperature and pulse are normal and that his complete recovery is only a matter of time.

Henry M. Ziegler, by telephone from Cincinnati today, instructed Secretary Ken Walker of the Kentucky Sales Company to catalogue all of his thoroughbreds with the exception of Hermis for the sale here next week. Hermis is to be shipped to France. The Ziegler consignment consists of seven mares, all with foals by Hermis at heel, and eight yearlings. The mares are Frederica, Melton Mowbray, Long Lost, Crimea, Countess Pepper, Bermuda Lily and Chattah. The mares and foals are at Highland Farm. The yearlings now being broken at Idle Hour Farm are: Chestnut colt, by Royal Flush III.—Crimea, chestnut colt by Royal Flush III.—Crimea, chestnut colt by Royal Flush III.—delton Mowbray, bay colt by Toddington—Countess Pepper, bay colt by Cesarion—Retained III., chestnut filly by Ornament—Long Lost, bay filly by Baldur—Chattah, bay filly by Cesarion—Pocketpiece, and bay filly by Woolsthorpe—Mrs.

THINKS WELL OF CASTLETON-BREDS.

New York, September 13.—When Henry Spencer rode for James R. Keene and other prominent east ern horsemen in the golden days of 'Commando and Cap and Bells, Voter and Conroy, he was popularly known as "the ice man." Mr. Keene is said to have thought as well of Spencer as he ever thought of a Jockey, but there was a long coolness between the vice-chairman of the Jockey Club and "the iceman" after the defeat of Commando by Beau Gallant in the Matron Stakes of 1900 at Morris Park. Commando had not known defeat up to the running of the Matron, and Mr. Keene had set his heart on having him go into winter quarters an unbeaten two-year-old. Mr. Keene attributed Commando's defeat to Spencer's lethargic finish and for the jockey's apparent carelessness the vice-chairman of the Jockey Club could not account.

He angrily declined to accept Spencer's explanation that Commando had boited across the track at the start, which was pulled off at the top of the Eclipse course, out of sight of those in the grandstand and on the clubhouse lawn. It was in vain that Spencer told the irate horseman that Elizabeth M. had gained a lead of fifty yards before he succeeded in righting Commando, and that the drive he had been under to close this gap had taken so much out of him he had no energy left wherewith to stall off Beau Gallant's determined chailenge in the last quarter.

Mr. Keene put Spencer down for the ensuing win-

Mr. Keene put Spencer down for the ensuing win-ter and it was with the greatest reluctance that he yielded to the persuasion of James Rowe and per-mitted him to ride Commando in the Belmont and Conroy in the Jockey Club Weight-for-Age Race of 1901. The vice-chairman of the Jockey Club never regretted letting Spencer ride these horses, for both won.

Spencer followed the example of Sloan and Maher

1901. The vice-chairman of the Jockey Club never regretted letting Spencer ride these horses, for both Spencer followed the example of Sloan and Maher and went abroad after he became too heavy to ride at home, and he had some success for several seasons in France and Germany. Increasing weight compelled him to return home a couple of seasons back, and now he has some notion of trying to get in line for service as a starter. Spencer, as an owner and trainer, won some races in Germany with a couple of Castleton-bred horses before his return home, and sold the horses well. If he had had the price he would have purchased four or five horses at the recent Keene sale at Saratoga and taken them to Germany and Austria.

"They do not." Spencer says, "have horses of the kind Mr. Keene breeds in continental Europe every year. I could take half a dozen of these cast-offs across the Atlantic this winter and win $25,000 with them in Germany and Austria next year, provided they had no bad luck. I do not know whether Americans appreciate the fact or not, but it is so, just the same, that my old boss breeds the best race horses in the world. I would like nothing better than to see the strongest stable Castleton the management of a man like James Rowe. If the two and three-year-olds were well engaged in the best produce races and in events of the Futurity order, I'd bet my life such a stable would lead all rivals in the competition for purses."

NEW ORLEANS PLAN ABANDONED.

New Orleans, La., September 13.-There will b

no race meeting here the coming winter, for the proposed thirty-days meeting to begin on Thanks-giving Day has been declared off.

Although no official announcement of the abandoning of the plan has been made, one of the prime movers stated after the recent meeting to discuss ways and means that there would be no racing here ways and means that there would be no racing nere this year.

"The scheme has been given up for good," said this promoter. "for the sole reason that the merchants did not want it and would not stand back of it. Racing is desired by the business men and merchants, but the thirty-days plan did not meet with their approval and consequently has been given in.

"What the next move will be I have no idea, but It is certain that the horses will not race this year and the proposed plan which has been rejected will not be revived."

AMERICAN NOMINATIONS FOR ENGLISH CLASSICS OF 1912

Complete entry lists to the Derby, Oaks and St. Leger of 1912 have been published in England recently. Incomplete Derby and Oaks lists were made public some time back. Of immediate interest here are the contributions from the United States. The American nominations are numerous and representative of our best lines of breeding. American-bred contries number 51 to the Epsom Derby, 26 to the Epsom Oaks and 22 to the Doncaster St. Leger. R. T. Wilson, Jr., has the greatest number in the Derby, 12, and H. P. Whitney is second to him with 10. Mr. Wilson's entries are of yearlings nominated to the Derby by John E. Madden and afterwards sold to their present owner with their engagements. None of them is in the St. Leger. H. P. Whitney has ten in the Derby, seven in the Oaks and five in the St. Leger. The majority of his nominations are by Hamburg, but he has scions of Adam, Burgomaster and Golden Garter engaged also. James R. Keene has three colts in the Derby and three fillies in the Oaks. August Belmont has four in the Derby, five in the St. Leger and three in the Oaks. All but one are by Rock Sand, the exception being a colt by Ethelbert—Crossways named Curieux. He also has the English-bred colt. Ferole, by Orme—Ferment, in the Derby and St. Leger. Louis Winans has his brother to Sir Martin in the Derby and St. Leger and has named him Sir Colin. H. B. Duryea has three Derby nominations and two each to the St. Leger and bas named him Sir Colin. H. B. Duryea has three Derby nominations and two each to the St. Leger and Oaks. John E. Madden bas retained three Derby nominations and one to the Oaks. F. R. Hitchcock has a colt in the Derby and Tom Welsh have well-bred nominations.

Some of the foreign owners of American-breds may chance to possess racing jewels. James A. de Rothschild, for instance, has a half-brother to the famous Waterboy was any conceivable turf honors may await him, T. Baring's colt, Kemplon, is by Broomstick, from the fast mare. CARMAN COLORS TO FORE

NEW YORK TURFMAN SCORES A DOUBLE AT BLUE BONNETS COURSE.

Wins with Bonnie Kelso and Arcite-A. H. Higgin son Sees Sir Wooster Win Strathcona Steeplechase in Splendid Style.

Montreal, Que., September 13.—The colors of Richard F. Carman, of New York, were conspicuous at Blue Bonnets today. The Carman stable furnished two of the afternoon's winners in Bonnie Kelso, which beat Sager in the third race, and Arcite, winner of the sixth. Both Bonnie Kelso and Arcite led their company from start to finish and the former reduced the track record for a mile and three-sixteenths by almost four seconds. The program offered this afternoon was not up to the high standard of the first two days.

and the former reduced the track record for a mile and three-sixteenths by almost four seconds. The program offered this afternoon was not up to the high standard of the first two days.

The Strathcona Steeplechase Handicap was the feature event and it gave race-goers the opportunity of seeing a really good jumper race. Sir Wooster, conceding lumps of weight to everything in the race, made all of his own pace, fenced in faultless fashion, stalled off stont opposition at different stages of the running and won with almost ridiculous ease at the finish from Expansionist, which outlasted the tiring Steve Lane. A. Henry Higginson, of Boston, was present to see Sir Wooster run and was much elated over his horse's victory. Gwyn Tompkins sent Sir Wooster to the post in grand condition despite the fact that it was his first effort in some weeks. Eight of the nine carded went to the post in the Strathcona and all but Gild finished the course. Gild unseated his rider at the fourth jump and his stable companion, Minto, all but lost his jockey at the sixteenth. The latter was a keen factor up to this point, but after making a bad landing at this fence he tired and dropped out of the straggle.

Bonnie Kelso simply toyed with Sager in his race. He was under restraint the entire trip and at no stage was the result in doubt. Arctle had to stand a hard drive to make the Carman record a double. He led Judge Lassing by a length and a half at the finish and for a time it looked as if the race might be taken from him. Guy Garner, who had the mount on Judge Lassing, claimed foul against Arcite on the ground of being cut off at the turn out of the backstretch and also because jockey Archibald struck Judge Lassing across the head with his whip in the stretch. The stewards evidently believed that the last-named occurrence was practically a renewal of the King's Plate and The Lady of Mercia came right back and duplicated her victory of the opening day. She shouldered 134 pounds and conceded as much as forty-four pounds to some of the on

MARLBORO TO REPLACE BENNING.

Washington, D. C., September 13.—Having received the sanction of the Jockey Club to race tendays at Marlboro, Prince's George County, Md., the Southern Maryland Racing Association, of which former Congressman R. S. Hill is president, has issued a prospectus for the meeting, which begins October 4 and closes October 14. There will be six races each day with purses of $250 and $500 in value.

The track, which is three-quarters of a mile in the control of the country of value.

The track, which is three-quarters of a mile in circumference, is twelve miles from Benning. D. C., where many horses will be stabled, though Marlboro affords ample accommodations. The new race course can be reached in fifty minutes by special trains from Baltimore over the Pennsylvania Railroad, and in less than three-quarters of an hour from Washington by steam and trolley cars.

The officials of the meeting are: Joseph A. Murphy, presiding judge; James F. Milton, starter; F. W. Gerhardy, clerk of the course and scales; G. E. Hall, paddock and patrol judge, and George Miller, timer.

Miller, timer, Preceding, as it does, the Pimlico meeting, Marlboro, with a Jockey Club sanction, will appeal to horsemen who would otherwise be compelled to remain idle because of the closing of the metropolitan main idle because of the closing of the metropolitan circuit.

The work of improving the Marlboro course is progressing rapidly and will be completed before October 4, the date set for the opening. Special attention is being paid to the steeplechase course. Cross-country racing was always popular with patrons of racing about Baltimore and Washington, and there are many good jumpers at Pimlico and Benning tracks to fill the Marlboro 'chases.

Manager Elrod has arranged with the Pinkerton agency for a force of uniformed men with which to police the course. Dr. Hill. William G. Brooke, A. T. Brooke, F. J. Pons, C. O. Smith, C. L. Jones, J. B. Warren, J. W. Rice and C. H. Colby are behind this new enterprise and they will spare no pains to make their first regular race meeting a success. It is their highly laudable desire to win for Marlboro a permanent place on the eastern racing map in place of Benning and if they get the right sort of encouragement this fall their next step will be to construct a first-class course of a mile and an eighth.

Already stabling accommodation has been provided at the course for Abe Garson with eight horses, Clint De Witt with ten. D. Kinney with two, S. W. Streett with six, C. C. Smithson four, P. S. P. Randolph four, A. Allen four, Robert Taylor three, Fred Miller five, David Dunlop eight, Matthew Meyers seven, Henry Flippen two, Harry Rites ten, John Farrell four, James Johnson two, N. K. Beal ten, Frank Lightfoot six, Frank Bray four, and James Neal two.

GOSSIP OF THE EASTERN TURF.

New York, September 13.—Six yearlings, the property of August Belmont, are due at Gravesend from the Nursery Stud in Kentneky. Trainer Thomas Welsh, who has handled a division of Mr. Belmont's racing string for the past few seasons, will break and try these juveniles. They are destined for for the racing in this country and will be wintered at the Gravesend course of the Brooklyn Jockey Club.

Thomas McCreery, who successfully trained Aeronaut, Entree, Lady Winifred and other horses for Frederick Johnson and F. Ambrose Clark, has had an offer to train a stable of goodly proportions for a western owner on the Pacific coast this winter.

Jerome Welsh, one of starter Mars Cassidy's assistants, will shortly leave for a trip to England and Ireland. Some years ago Jerry was an accomplished cross-country rider on the Irish courses. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., will send the two-year-olds. Bouncer and Savannab, together with several other horses, to France late in the fall. They will be schooled over the jumps at Mr. Hitchcock's Westbury establishment on Long Island first.

LOVE-NOT AN OAKS ELIGIBLE.

New York, September 13.—E. R. Bradley says that he may take his $7,000 Voter filly. Love-Not, which took third money in the Futurity after setting the pace for five furlongs, to England next spring for the Oaks. James R, Keene nominated Love-Not for the Oaks last fall, and, inasmuch as her acceptances have been paid, she is still eligible to that race as well as other English stakes.

Love-Not is now in charge of William Hurley, who will make an effort to get her to the post for the filly end of the Matron Stakes at Pimlico, in Which she may meet Bashti and Heatherbroom.

James Rowe declares that Love-Not was easily the fastest of the two-year-olds Mr. Keene sold at Saratoga, but he is not sure Love-Not will care for the Oaks course. He is inclined to think speed rather than distance running will prove the Voter filly's forte.—The best youngster for distance running Mr. Keene sold at the Springs was Heatherbroom, in trainer Rowe's opinion. That big daughter of Ben Brush and Biturica will go any distance next year, her' old trainer thinks. Heatherbroom is now in the stable J. Simon Healey is training for Capt. E. B. Cassatt. The Ben Brush filly is getting ready for the filly end of the Matron.

VANDERBILT SUCCESSES CONTINUE.

Paris, France, September 13.—At Chantilly the race for the Prix la Rochette for fillles, 10,009 francs, about 1,100 kilometers, was won by W. K. Vanderbilt's Brume. Baron Rothschild's Nectarine was second and M. Ephrussi's Blina third. The jockeys were O'Neill, Woodland and O'Connor. The Prix la Rochette for colts; 20,000 francs, about 1,100 kilometers, was won by Mr. Vanderbilt's Manfred, O'Neill up.

THINKS CAPTAIN WILLIAMS OUT OF LINE.

THINKS CAPTAIN WILLIAMS OUT OF LINE.

Louisville, Ky., September 13.—The $20,000 valuation placed by Capt. J. T. Williams upon the two-year-old gelding Governor Gray, is as much, as the greatest geldings known to the running turf sold for at the height of their racing fame. These were Drake Carter, Proctor Knott and Raceland. The largest price paid for either of these horse was $20,000. Trainer John Walters, who has been dickering for Governor Gray, recalling the history of these great horses, says that he considers Captain Williams out of line, considering present conditions. Mr. Walters would not say what he had been authorized to offer for the half-brother of Waldo, but he intimated that he would be willing to pay more for Governor Gray than any two-year-old gelding in this country has been sold for in years. He considers Governor Gray the only really good two-year-old he has seen this year in the west. He admits that while his own coll, Melvor, beat Governor Gray, it was a lucky win and he regards Captain Williams' gelding easily the season's star in the west.

Trainer J. J. Flannigan will ship his two-year-old filly, Miss Von der Hoden, from Douglas Park to Lexington. After racing her a time or two there he will return here for the Churchill Downs meeting. She worked half a mile in 50 a day or two ago.

Trainer W. C. Westmoreland will ship several horses from the F. J. Pons stable to Lexington this week, including Font, Tony Bonero, Jack Denman, Great Heavens and Jack Parker. These five horses have stake engagements at the Kentucky Association meeting.

Jockey N. Kennedy today signed a contract to ride for J. R. Wainwright for one year.

Tom Hatfield has had Edward Alvey's Colonel Bob punchifred, but this will not interfere with the training of the horse, which is going along unusually well. Coionel Bob is showing a surprising willingness to work.

Loa Johnson is in receipt of a letter from John W. Schorr stating that he will race eight or ten of work.

Lon Johnson is in receipt of a letter from John W. Schorr stating that he will race eight or ten of his horses at Churchill Downs during the final fortigit of the fall meeting. The remainder of his string will be rested at Latonia, George P. Brazier has arrived from Latonia at the Downs with Tom McGrath and Diction. Robert G. Jones came today from Latonia to Douglas Park with Pin Oak and Pennock, W. V. Casey came from the same place with Mamie Algol, County Clerk and Robin Grey and another arrival from the same place was C. E. Patterson with Kercheval, Pirate Diana and Carew.
